

Draw a line from the Cause column to Effect column. Think about, because this happened, what in the story happened next.

Cause

1. "The puppies are growing so fast," said Joe. "We are going to have to find a bigger place for them to live."
2. Today the puppies turned eight weeks old.
3. Sherry promised her sister Kate she could have the puppy that looked just like Molly. A promise is a promise!
4. Lindie Lou's carrier was put on a conveyor belt and went into a dark room at the airport. Lindie Lou was all alone.
5. Joe left in such a hurry he forgot to shut the door to the puppy playground.
6. It was fall and the leaves were falling from the trees.
7. Max's carrier came up the ramp and into the belly of the plane. He was strapped in next to Lindie Lou.

Effect

- Lindie Lou's ride in the airplane was fun. She wasn't scared anymore.
- Lindie Lou didn't see the hole in the ground in the backyard.
- Joe and Sherry fixed up the garage for the puppies. They called it the puppy playground.
- The puppies were old enough to travel and it was time for them to leave.
- Joe and Sherry couldn't keep Lindie Lou.
- Lindie Lou turned to the open door and ran outside.
- Lindie Lou waited, whimpered and then curled up next to Coco in her carrier.
