

Comprehension

Match each character to the statement they would have said.

"You are a true friend to anyone in trouble. From now on, you shall be known as Lindie Lou Blue."

"I know this stone. I lost it a few days ago on the beach near the shore. It was given to me by my great-grandfather."

"Greenstone comes from the South Island of New Zealand. It is also called pounamu. It is our national stone, also known as New Zealand jade."

"We're going to New Zealand to meet with a local author. I'm going to be drawing some pictures for her new book."

"But you are. You are more than good enough. Come with me, Diamond."

"I'm working on my reading and writing skills."

"The four words I gave Lilly were treasure, sand, and wooden steps."

"It's our birthday. We are seven years old today."

"Thank you for being so brave and showing me amazing things."
